“Summer, Summer, Summer-time...” [Standards]

With the arrival of the Summer term and (fingers-crossed), the associated good weather, I am required to remind you all of the standards that we require of both your attire and some ‘slips’ that I feel have occurred in a number of you that therefore requires transparency through this issue of Sixth Sense. Please refer to the key information below.

- ◆ Please remove and put away ALL AIRPODS/EARPHONES the moment that you leave the Common Room in addition to your MOBILE PHONE. These are NOT permitted to be used around the Academy or during lessons.
- ◆ Our dress code remains the same and this includes your blazer/formal jacket being worn.
- ◆ Solihull Moors: Shorts or ‘slider’ footwear are NOT part of our dress code. ‘Moors’ tracksuit bottoms and attire MUST be worn.
- ◆ Hopefully the good weather will support this final point, however, coats must NOT BE WORN INSIDE. Please remove this as you enter a site building (including the Common Room and store this away).

Goldman Sachs Careers Visit

Just before the Easter school holiday we were delighted to have been invited to take a group of student to the London headquarters of Goldman Sachs, and as such were able to take ten students from mainly Sixth Form for this experience who had expressed interest in following an accountancy/ financial pathway. The students were a credit to both themselves the Academy and despite nine other schools also attending the experience, the TGAK team ended up winning the debate competition on their final day in addition to several other individual awards, including the ‘best student’ award.

Careers remain an ongoing priority for us and this takes place on a varied and continual basis. This week, Virgin Media came in to speak to all Sixth Form student about their apprenticeships and Mrs Armitage, our UCAS Coordinator, will be speaking to all of Yr 12 about the June UCAS Conference at the NEC.
