Which Week?

This Week: 16th May (Week 1)

Next Week: 23rd May (Week 2)

Year 13 "Room of Requirement"

Following on from feedback from Year 13 students, we are very pleased to be able to offer a Harry Potter-styled "Room of Requirement" for students to be able to prepare, work and revise quietly in their own designated space.

The A112 classroom on the first floor of A Block has been re-timetabled in order to move all current lessons out of here in order to provide a perpetually available classroom for our students to utilize and in addition are pleased to be able to provide you with study packs, in order to support you with some stationary toward getting your revision notes in order. The Sixth Form team will also be converting this space into one that is more akin to a study space than that of a classroom, and remind you that the Sixth Form laptops can similarly be used in here, please just do so quietly if using audio via the use of your own headphones as not to interrupt others.

Exam Timetable

Over the next few weeks, we will be publishing the exam timetable for all of the Level 3 examinations on the following page.

Your own exam timetable is the most accurate version as it will detail any specific arrangements were you to have any clashes, however please refer to this as a guide or indeed our online version published on the website @ <https://www.kingshurst.tgacademy.org.uk/files/2022/05/Sixth-Form-Exams-Summer-2022-1.pdf>

Keep It Balanced

Regardless of which year you are in, the stress process for any student can have such a personal response. We can all process a seemingly identical context and respond in a totally unique manner.

The stress process is defined as the imbalance between the demand on the individual in comparison to their capability to respond to this demand. When we feel able to meet or easily meet this 'demand', we feel at ease. Where we feel unable to meet this demand it can result in us feeling stressed. Further to the numerous acknowledgements to anxiety this year I offer to further resources that may be of assistance to you to engage with. One is a series of short Youtube 'exam stress' videos by an organization called Snaprevise, and one is an article published this weekend in The Guardian that offers 60 mood-boosting advice ideas that could help you to feel more positive and grounded through this period. Not sure about No.44 for me but do like the idea of No.23 and am seriously considering No.49!
